

Problems and results in algebra and combinatorics

Eduardo Marques de Sá
Universidade de Coimbra
e-mail: emsa@mat.uc.pt

Abstract

Abstract. We shall consider some problems in the theories of invariant factors of matrices over principal ideal domains, and Kronecker invariants of matrix pencils. A short reference is made to a convexity result and its extension to modular lattices. A special reference to the combinatorial flavor of these problems will be given.